

Little Anthony Mary Mouse desires only to be of service to his neighbors, especially the poor. Armed with prayer, he joyfully embraces his life's many adventures. Yet none of these challenges prepare him for the ultimate life-or-death struggle against a vicious cat named Legion.

The Adventures of Anthony Mary Mouse is a page turning tale based on the life and times of Saint Anthony Mary Zaccaria who was born in Cremona, Italy at the height of the Renaissance.

Author-Illustrator Carol J. Haile has humorously illustrated her story in the time-honored tradition of medieval illuminated manuscripts, weaving significant and subtle aspects of Saint Zaccaria's life into a story bursting with mystery and surprise.

The Adventures of Anthony Mary Mouse is told in enchanting rhyme. Prepare to be charmed as Anthony Mary embarks upon his triumphant journey toward sainthood.

$24.95

32 pages of full color, hardbound,
overall size approximately 9" X 11"